

Announcing:
The 2011 PRCA Fundraiser!

“Still Cookin’ After All These Years”

Join us Thursday, October 27th, 7pm at Old #1 in Morris. We'll have a wide variety of auction items, hors d'oeuvres, live music...and new this year, in keeping with our theme, we're holding a BAR CONTEST!

Bring a pan of bars cut into bite-size pieces. Folks will vote on their favorite tasty morsel by putting a bill ($1, $100?) into a "tip jar". Bar cooks can also opt to bring two pans and we'll put one in the contest and auction the other.

Come wearing your favorite apron – your mother's hand-me-down, one you've made, one you've used much too often, or a crazy one just for laughs.

Auction items are still needed. Here are some ideas:

SERVICES – a meal, a skill, a lesson, a chore to be done, a tank of gas
BAKED GOODS – loaves of bread, cinnamon rolls for a Saturday morning, a dessert
LESSONS – two clarinet lessons, knitting lessons
DINNERS – homemade meal + delivery, a venison dinner for four
TICKETS – movies, sports events, theatre performances

You can even make an apron and put it in the auction!

Any FUN and/or UNUSUAL items/services would be welcome. Put your apron on and cook up some wild ideas for auction items!

AND THIS YEAR ... we're going to auction off a snow person/sculpture to the highest bidder!

So get in the spirit, mark your calendars, and plan to join us Oct. 27th, 7pm, Old #1, in Morris.
